GOD'S CALL

In today's scriptures we hear three instances of people receiving and responding to a call from God. These accounts follow the pattern of most scriptural call narratives: a divine presence appears and speaks; the person expresses fear or unworthiness, receives encouragement, and finally responds to God's call. Today's first reading shows an unworthy Isaiah responding to the Lord's call, "Here I am; send me!" (Isaiah 6:8). In the second reading Paul tells us that, even though he had persecuted the church, he was called to be an apostle. In the Gospel, despite Simon Peter's protest that he is a sinner, Jesus calls James, John, and Simon to follow him. They leave everything they have and follow Jesus—that is, they become Jesus' disciples. These scriptures can challenge us to take stock of our lives. How do we experience Jesus' call to discipleship in our lives? How well and faithfully are we responding?

2010 ANNUAL APPEAL

“I Give Thanks, O’ Lord”

Cardinal Mahony has sent letters to past contributors to the Together In Mission campaign. If you receive this letter, please respond with a generous pledge to support the ministries, programs and services provided by the parishes and schools that receive these funds. As each parish household prayerfully reflects on the amount of the pledge to be made to help these parishes and schools, please reflect on the following:

- Do I really believe that I have a duty to help others who are in need?
- Is what I give to the work of the Church enough to show how grateful I am for what God has given me?
- Do I appreciate how important every contribution to Together in Mission is to the people in the subsidized parishes and schools?

Envelopes are in the pews this weekend and next weekend for the ‘in-pew’ solicitation process, so that those who do not receive a direct mailing will have an opportunity to make their pledges. Papers with more information are at all entrances to the Church and Chapel. Please pray for the guidance of the Holy Spirit as you consider the above questions, and give generously, according to what God has given to you.
